

Adams County did not respond to the Public Records Request that was sent asking for information regarding detained individuals. Therefore, information from the Adams County Sheriff's Department's website was entered into the database.